NOTICES FOR THE WEEK COMMENCING 19TH AUGUST 2018

Saturday: The Assumption of Our Lady: this weekend is the feast of the Assumption, and is therefore the Patronal Festival of S Mary's. A very warm welcome to our visitors to S Mary's for our Patronal feast day, and especially to any visiting clergy.

Very many grateful thanks: to Laurence from S Saviour's for bringing the choir and organising the music which this year is Mozart's Spatzenmesse setting. Many thanks to all those who have provided the refreshments, which as usual will be at the back of church. (Should the weather prove pleasant enough, please feel free to wander outside in the sunshine with your tea, sandwiches and cake!) Many thanks to Fr Nathan Mulcock for coming to preach and deacon the High mass, and to Thomas Brown-Flowers for coming to subdeacon, and also to the servers who as usual are diligent and obliging! My thanks to everyone who has helped today, and all those who have come along to celebrate the feast.

Sunday in the Octave of the Assumption: At S Mary's will be a High Mass, so I trust that the servers will be along in goodly numbers for the continuation of the festal weekend! The Assumption will be observed at all three Sunday Masses this week.

On Sunday, Tea, Coffee etc will be served after both Solemn Masses: 9:15 and 11:15. We very much hope you can stay.

*Portuguese Mass: as Fr Pimenta is away, and we are in the height of the holiday season, there is no Portuguese Mass this week – Fr Pimenta has suggested that for this week our Portuguese speakers come along to the 11:15 Solemn Mass which will of course be in English!

S Joseph Calasanz: has his feast day on Saturday – as there is a relic of the saint in S Mary's I will bring it along to S Saviour's on Saturday for the morning Mass should anyone like to venerate the relic.
