NOTICES FOR THE WEEK COMMENCING 14TH OCTOBER 2018

Welcome to S Mary's and S Saviour's today: there will as always be tea, coffee etc served after both Solemn Masses, and we very much hope you will be able to stay.

Today is Rosary Sunday: the major feast of Our Lady in the month of October. Blue vestments will be worn for both Solemn Masses, and the propers will be of the feast, whilst the readings will be for the day.

Joan Clarke, R.I.P.: There will be a Solemn Requiem Mass for Joan on THURSDAY 18TH JUNE (this Thursday) at 7:30pm at S Mary's Church. Joan died recently in Devon at the wonderful age of 98, and always remained a much loved member of the congregation at S Mary's, not least of all for her wonderful 60 years as the organist up until she moved to Devon aged 90! Given her great age, I think it appropriate to use the Extraordinary Form for this mass (naturally with Sundon's customary parochial additions and deviations!) Jesus mercy, Mary pray.

S Saviour's PCC: will meet on the morning of Saturday 3rd November after the 10am Mass. It was suggested last week that the church cleaning take place after that. However: it is quite clear that two events on the same morning is simply too much, and so the church cleaning will be moved to another day. This means that folks will have time to get home for lunch, and spend the afternoon enjoying themselves! ☺

Many thanks: to all those who supported and helped with the Sundon Harvest Supper last week! Well done!

S Saviour's coffee mornings: Many thanks to those who came along and supported the event last week.

S Mary's clothing bags: will next be collected THIS WEDNESDAY!! Please leave bags at the Vicarage garage.
