29th Week in Ordinary Time

NOTICES FOR THE WEEK COMMENCING 21ST OCTOBER 2018

Welcome to S Mary's and S Saviour's today: there will as always be tea, coffee etc served after both Solemn Masses, and we very much hope you will be able to stay.

Today is 29th Sunday of Ordinary time: we are now back to green!

The Shambles big band: will be giving a concert at S Mary's on Saturday of this week. Do please come along and bring friends, relatives, co-workers, etc etc! Many thanks as always to those who will supply refreshments.

S Mary's Christmass Bazaar: will this year be on Saturday 24th November. Offers of help as always will be appreciated. The Friends of S Mary's will be busy organising all the practicalities, but help and donations are always welcome. Please be careful not to provide foodstuffs which are likely to go off too quickly! Many anticipated thanks to one and all!

S Saviour's PCC: will meet on the morning of Saturday 3rd November after the 10am Mass. It was suggested last week that the church cleaning take place after that. However: it is quite clear that two events on the same morning is simply too much, and so the church cleaning will be moved to another day. This means that folks will have time to get home for lunch, and spend the afternoon enjoying themselves! ☺

S Saviour's coffee mornings: Many thanks to those who came along and supported the event last week.

S Mary's clothing bags: were collected this week – many thanks to those who contributed again this time.
